”Multi Sport Action Day – Be Inclusive, Be Involved”!

A huge FREE Sports and Action event is taking place on Saturday July 9th 11am – 5pm at Devonshire Park, International Tennis Centre, College Road, Eastbourne.

This will be the first of an annual event bringing together a whole host of sports including Disability sports and activities that you can try out for the first time and even take up on a regular basis to ensure you keep a lifelong healthy lifestyle.

The Event is for all, children of all ages, Disabilities, Special Needs, MLD, SLD, teenagers, adults, and the elderly; there will be something for everyone to try.

Global Tennis is bringing clubs, societies and activities together for one massive day, with the support of Sport England, Eastbourne Borough Council, Sussex Sports Partnership and Devonshire Park Lawn Tennis Club, giving you the opportunity to try out a range of sports and activities including the new Spin Tennis (Wheelchair Tennis) on the world famous Grass Courts at Eastbourne.

Sean Holt, Regional Director of Sport England, said: “We are delighted to support this project which offers sport to the whole community. Our goal in the region is to increase participation in sport and physical activity, and we welcome this type of initiative which will help us achieve that goal.”

The Event is being Sponsored and supported by Eastbourne Borough Council, Domino’s Pizza, Volkl Tennis (try out the new Boris Becker Racket for the first time ever!)and Taut Isotonic, who are coming down to quench your thirst.

Other Events and Attractions taking place so far:

Meet a British Jet Ski Racer who is bringing down his Championship Winning Jet Ski for you try out – without the water!!! Have your photo taken on the Jet Ski and get signed photos of racing action. Try a Vew-Do Board a scheme likely to sweep the Nation, even Tottenham Hotspurs Football Club have joined the bandwagon.
